Within a few minutes walk of our venue you can find many places to eat, to suit every taste and budget. Here are a few to whet your appetites. Friday and Saturday nights are likely to be fairly busy so it might even be worth looking at booking a table if there is anywhere you particularly want to try and maybe inviting some people to join you. Feel free to use the Facebook participants group to do this if you want to offer places to new friends.

Here are a few, but we didn't have time to list them all..... The first two listed here are offering a discount on production of your milonga pass

The Boston Tea Party Monday – Saturday: 7 am to 8 pm, Sunday: 8 am to 7 pm	75 Park Street, Bristol BS1 5PF Tel: +44 (0) 117 929 8601 http://www.bostonteatparty.co.uk/our-cafes/bristol-park-street.php	Funky cafe chain serving up breakfast, burgers, salads and baked goods with sustainable ingredients. They serve breakfast all day and you can order food right up to the advertised closing time so you can go there directly after the milongas finish at 7pm on Friday or Saturday (they said they won't kick you out). They don't reserve tables but have lots of space and we've warned them so they should have extra staff on. They are offering participants showing their milonga passes a 10% discount on all food and drink.

Try St Nicholas Market for breakfast, brunch or lunch

Monday to Saturday 9.30am to 5pm | 11 mins walk from venue | <http://www.stnicholasmarketbristol.co.uk/>

There are loads of great food stalls and cafes (Matina, Eat a Pitta, Al Bab Mansour/Moorish and Carribean Wrap are worth looking out for) and it's well worth a wander around, a great chilli sauce shop too. Nearby you can also find the Friday Food Market (Friday 10am to 4pm) on Wine Street, offering shoppers and visitors the opportunity to purchase some of the best local produce and street food available in the City.
